Fajr Prayer

It should be born in mind that Allah the Almighty has set times for prayer in such away that the daily prayers regularly serve as a reminder to the believers during the day and the night.

When Allah emphasized the necessity of prayer and charges us to perform it in its specific time, by this Allah means to help us because whatever good we do is for our own benefit. And whatever offence we commit is against ourselves and does not increases nor decreases Allah's kingdom in any way.

The prophet described those who neglect the attendance of Fajr and Esha prayers in the Mosque as well known hypocrites. So how can we describe those who do not perform prayers neither in the Mosque nor in their houses?

Albukhari narrated that the prophet said "There are no heavier prayers than Isha and Fajr for the hypocrites and if they realized the reward for those two prayers, they would attend them and even if they were to crawl."

If we have a real intention to perform Fajr prayer, we should fight against ourselves and set our alarm clock starting from tonight to perform tomorrow Fajr prayer in the mosque.

It is also important to go to sleep at a proper time and find the good company that helps us to perform prayers in the mosque.
